INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

THIS tenth issue of ST. MARK'S PARISH ANNUAL appears somewhat late, peculiar hindrances having delayed the preparation of some of the reports which follow.

The love and zeal and fidelity of a very large corps of workers in our parochial field have another year brought forth good and abundant fruit. There is constantly increasing demand for laborers in that field. Could not some of those who "stand idle" among us take up a share of the toil? and so "learn the luxury of doing good."

The Parish is to be congratulated upon the coming among us of the Rev. J. E. Johnson, with his rare aptitudes and large experience for such work as that committed to his care at the Memorial Chapel.

It should be carefully borne in mind, that the following Reports close with the year 1884. Donations, etc., received since that time will be acknowledged in the Annual for 1885.

J. H. KYLANCE,

Rector.

The Church Sunday School.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

“Work, for I am with you, saith the Lord of hosts.”—HAG. II. 4.

“Neither is this a work of one day or two.”
—EZRA X. 13.

IT gives me pleasure to report another year of good steady work in St. Mark's Parish Sunday-School ; work which I trust has been acceptable to our Father in Heaven ; and which I hope will make itself manifest in the lives of the children who have been intrusted to our care.

During the past year we have had a good average attendance of scholars ; and have been reasonably well supplied with teachers ; but there has never been a Sunday when a good teacher would not have been of great service to us.

We have had our midsummer picnic : and this year, at the request of our Rector, a change was made in our Christmas festival. Instead of holding it in the Church, a large hall was hired ; a Christmas tree, surrounded by presents of books, toys, and candies for every child, occupied one end of the room ; in front of which the children under the guidance of their teachers, played “Blind Man’s Buff,” and other good old games. Then, after listening to the merriment of a ventriloquist, the presents were distributed; and I think a happier set of children could not have been found, than those who went home from the hall that evening. For this pleasure they were indebted to the congregation of St. Mark's Church, and to them, in the name of the school, I return thanks.

Accompanying this will be found the Secretary's, Treasurer's, and Librarian's reports, which show the exact condition of the school, and to which I invite attention.

During the past year we have lost some of our old teachers; but to them, as well as those now with us, and to the Rev. Brockholst Morgan, I return my thanks for the assistance and encouragement they have given me.

Librarian's Report.

"GREAT store of all sorts of good books (through the great mercy of God) are common among us : he that cannot buy, may borrow."—RICHARD BAXTER.

That was 200 years ago ; but how much more true in this our own time ! Truly an age of books and libraries : "He that cannot buy, may borrow."

The work that has been done by St. Mark's Library during '84, figures can best tell :—

Number of books in Library.....	709
Number issued on 39 Sundays.....	2,836
Average per Sunday	73
Largest number, Feb'y 10, 1884.....	104
Smallest " Sept. 14, 1884	31
Number of persons using Library.....	139
" added by purchase and donation...	73

2,836 chances to sow good seed ! What will the harvest be ? He only knows who shall one day open the Books wherein all things are written. May His blessing be upon our works !

Annual Report.

THE Auxiliary Missionary Society of St. Mark's Church lays its tenth annual report before the parish, with a feeling of satisfaction, that, although able to accomplish but a comparatively small part of the work that is done, yet that little has told in lessening the hardships in the life of the missionary, and is remembered with gratitude as an encouraging influence upon his labors for the church.

The Society acknowledges with thanks the subscriptions and donations received during the past year.

MEMORANDUM.

SINCE the retirement of the Rev. Brockholst Morgan, full services have been regularly maintained; though some departments of the work suffered somewhat from want of a duly appointed minister. The vacancy has been filled by the settlement of a man in the Memorial Building thoroughly competent to do the work assigned him.

Day School.

The school opened the ninth of September, with one hundred and twenty-four pupils, boys, and girls.

Since then we have transferred to the Grammar Departments of Public Schools, eight girls: six of our boys have left for work.

The school is opened at 9 A.M. with singing of hymns, reading of Scriptures, Venite, Confession, Lord's Prayer, Creed.

The session lasts from 9 A.M. to 12 A.M. and from 1 to 3 P.M. The school is in a flourishing condition, one hundred and ten children are on register, —52 girls, 58 boys. We have not had one death during the year.

We have been kindly remembered with the following gifts from friends :

A map of the United States and flowers for Easter reception, Mrs. Pierrepont.

Ice Cream and Cake for the reception, and Excursion to Glen Island for the Mothers and children, Mr. R. Stuyvesant.

Clock, Dr. Pierrepont.

THE Association has struggled under the disadvantage of losing its president, who in past years has led us to higher and better aims by his example and records of his visits among the sick and suffering.

Committee No. I.—On care and training of children, acknowledge the gifts of 200 garments. Everything necessary to the sewing classes has been furnished by the Committee. The school-room has been made attractive by the gifts of a large map of the U. S., a hanging clock, and a Steinway piano. A May festival and a summer picnic gladdened the hearts of the children.

Committee No. II.—On employment of men and women, have not yet organized, but members have succeeded in procuring employment for applicants.

Committee No. III.—On the care of the sick aged and infirm, have continued in the good work of previous years. Medical treatment has been freely given by Drs. White, Morris and Remsen. Much might be said of the personal visits of some of the ladies to the homes of the afflicted. The loan closet has furnished linen and personal comforts for the sick. A collection of $92.91 given by Dr. Rylance to this Committee offered relief to sufferers during the summer months.

Committee No. IV.—On provident schemes and association, have continued as in past years. Mothers' meetings were held during the season, the names of seventy-six women were on the books, all of whom had taken out and paid for work. Through the influence of the Committee savings to the amount of $82 have been accumulated, interest paid to the depositors, and several loans have been made in cases of emergency.

Committee No. V.—On instruction and amusement, have carried on its work with zeal and success.

The reading-room has been made bright and attractive. There are now 662 books on the shelves of the library; the tables are filled with choice papers and magazines. The gifts of a handsome book-case, a hanging clock, and the bust of Daniel Webster are acknowledged with thanks. Through the efforts of this Committee the mothers were made happy on the evening of March 20th by a tea party, and on Thanksgiving Day turkeys and oranges gladdened the hearts and homes of fifty families.

The record just given shows that an effort has been made by these various Committees to help little children by administering to the wants of body and mind, to dispel sloth and idleness by providing work, to ease suffering by procuring medical aid, food and clothes, to bridge over difficulties by loaning money, to dispel the gloom of ignorance by offering knowledge, and to lighten burdened hearts by pure, healthful amusement.

May these efforts of the past only be a prelude to greater desires, greater work, greater success in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH A. HAMILL, Secretary.

St. Mark's Orpheo-Literary.

THE St. Mark's Orpheo-Literary Society was organized in 1881; the number of members is about fifty, consisting of Teachers, Officers and older members of the Sunday-school. Rev. Brockholst Morgan is the Honorary President, and Mr. John G. Senia the President. The Society has a small fund and library. The object of the Society is to bring together the members of the Sunday-school and church for Literary, Musical and Social improvement. It meets every Friday evening in the Sunday-school rooms, and gives a reception every month, free to the public, and during the year an entertainment is given, when an admission fee is charged to raise funds for the expenses. The property of the Society consists of a stage to fit in the library of the Sunday-school, costing $40.00; foot-lights, $5.00; sundry articles, $10.00.

Church members are invited to join us.
